About San Juan, Puerto Rico

Puerto Rico has a rich and long history. Today, the island is a blend of many cultures and historical contexts that is best learned about through day-to-day living, food, and music. Students will be based in and around San Juan serving with local organizations and exploring the culture through excursions and community events.

DAILY LIFE

What to expect during the program:
• Shared apartments with other Campus Anywhere students
• High-speed internet access
• Guaranteed privacy and desk space for your classes
• Weekly Amizade signature course sessions (3 credits)
• All meals will be on your own
• Local support from Amizade site director
• Minimum of 10 hours of volunteer service per week (you can do more if you want!)
• Weekly excursions and activities
• Excursions may include: El Yunque, Old San Juan, Piñones boat ride, Tour of nature reserve, Coffee tour in Ponce, West coast day trip, and Santurce mural tour

SERVICE IN THE SAN JUAN AREA

When you get to San Juan, the Amizade site director will help you set up your social action placement and weekly service. You’ll likely be with an organization that focuses on one of these themes:
• After-school teaching and support activities
• Non-profit Administration and Operations
• Environmental Sustainability & Conservation
• Community Assessment*

*Students working on community assessment are required to be fully bilingual in English and Spanish.
